

May 2020 Investment Report

Highlights

- More than 100,000 Americans have died from COVID-19, while the global death toll reached 350,000. At the end of May, cumulative cases exceeded 1.6 million in the U.S. and 5.6 million globally.
- Global stocks continued to recover in May as many countries began to reopen their economies, government stimulus plans provided economic support and COVID-19 vaccine trials progressed.
- Video of a Minneapolis police officer fatally applying excessive force to restrain unarmed African-American George Floyd sparked nationwide outrage and protests. In many cities across the U.S., civil unrest overshadowed peaceful demonstrations.
- The U.S. unemployment rate unexpectedly fell from 14.7% in April to 13.3% in May as the economy began to reopen. Employers added 2.5 million jobs during the month. Leisure and hospitality, which were some of the hardest hit areas of the job market, saw some of the largest employment gains.
- In May, MAF, USEF, IEF, and FIF outperformed their respective benchmarks. IPF underperformed its benchmark during the month.

Monthly Overview

Global stocks continued to recover

Building on April's strong recovery rally, the S&P 500 gained 4.8% and international stocks advanced 3.6% in May as investors looked beyond near-term economic concerns. Small- and mid-sized company stocks outperformed large company stocks, and stocks in the technology sector continued producing strong performance. Year to date, the tech-heavy NASDAQ Composite's gain of 6.2% led the major indices.

Countries around the world start to reopen their economies

A decline in new COVID-19 cases encouraged state governors to ease lockdown restrictions, and during the month, all 50 states took steps to reopen businesses and government agencies after months of closure. Each state chose its own path for reopening, though most states are applying a phased approach. More than 100 COVID-19 vaccines are in development worldwide, and human clinical tests have begun for at least eight of the vaccine candidates.

Widespread protests and civil unrest

George Floyd's death while in police custody drove protesters to the streets with cries for social justice across hundreds of cities in the U.S. and abroad. Peaceful protests gave way to widespread civil unrest, exacerbating already heightened anxiety and threatening a further forestall of economic recovery from COVID-19.

Government stimulus efforts continue

Late in the month, the European Union announced plans for a proposed €750 billion ($824 billion) COVID-19 stimulus effort and €1.1 trillion ($1.2 trillion) budget over the next seven years. Japan approved a set of measures to boost the economy totaling ¥117 trillion yen ($1.1 trillion). The new package brings Japan's total COVID-19 stimulus spending to ¥234 trillion yen ($2.2 trillion).

Key Monthly Economic Statistics

Chart of Month

- U.S. initial unemployment claims remained extremely elevated, but the pace of new claims continued to slow during the month.
- Cumulative initial unemployment claims reached 43 million over the 11-week period since states began implementing lockdowns to slow the spread of the coronavirus.
- The U.S. unemployment rate unexpectedly fell from 14.7% in April to 13.3% in May, as states began the process of reopening their economies.

Investment Fund Review (Net-of-Fees Performance)<sup>i</sup>

Equity Funds

U.S. Equity Fund

Fund	May	YTD
U.S. Equity Fund	+6.37%	-4.81%
Russell 3000 Index	+5.35%	-5.63%
Difference (percentage points)	+1.02	+0.82

- During the month, the fund benefited most from outperforming, growth-oriented active managers. Specifically, investments in software & services companies within the technology sector were meaningful contributors to outperformance. Also benefiting relative performance was an overweight allocation to small- and mid-cap companies. In addition, stocks excluded from the fund in compliance with Wespath's Exclusions policy (described here) underperformed the broad markets. To a lesser extent, the fund's investments in private real estate and private equity detracted from relative performance.
- Year to date, the fund's relative performance was positively impacted from outperforming, growth-oriented active managers, an underweight to poor performing value-oriented companies, and poor-performing stocks excluded from the portfolio in compliance with Wespath's Exclusions policy.

International Equity Fund

Fund	May	YTD
International Equity Fund	+5.20%	-12.57%
MSCI ACWI ex U.S. Investable Market Index (Net)	+3.63%	-14.94%
Difference (percentage points)	+1.57	+2.37

- During the month, the fund benefited most from the majority of active managers outperforming their respective benchmarks, as well as the fund's fair market valuation policy (described here). In particular, an active manager focused on selecting stocks from developed economies benefited from investments in consumer discretionary and healthcare companies in Germany.
- Year to date, the fund benefited from strong outperformance by a number of active managers, as well as investments in alternative investment strategies and poor-performing stocks excluded from the fund in compliance with Wespath's Exclusions policy.

U.S. Equity Index Fund

Fund	May	YTD
U.S. Equity Index Fund	+5.35%	-5.56%
Russell 3000 Index	+5.35%	-5.63%
Difference (percentage points)	+0.00	+0.07

- The U.S. Equity Index Fund is a passively managed fund designed so that it closely matches the fund benchmark, less fees and expenses. Wespath's Exclusions policy positively impacted benchmark-relative performance for the month and year to date.

Fixed Income Funds

Fixed Income Fund

Fund	May	YTD
Fixed Income Fund	+1.74%	+2.00%
Barclays U.S. Universal (ex MBS) Index	+1.17%	+4.51%
Difference (percentage points)	+0.57	-2.51

- The fund outperformed its benchmark during the month due to allocations to emerging market debt and corporate credit—both high-yield and investment-grade rated. Asset manager security selection in both sectors also added to benchmark-relative performance, but the allocation to alternative investments detracted.
- Year to date, overweight allocations to emerging market debt, corporate bonds and alternative investments detracted from benchmark-relative performance. Exposure to multi-family housing through high-quality U.S. agency commercial mortgage-backed securities added to benchmark-relative performance.

Extended Term Fixed Income Fund

Fund	May	YTD
Extended Term Fixed Income Fund	+1.19%	+7.46%
Barclays U.S. Government/Credit Long Term Index	+0.09%	+11.10%
Difference (percentage points)	+1.10	-3.64

- The fund outperformed its benchmark for the month, driven by its overweight allocation to corporate credit.
- Year to date, the fund's policy of maintaining a lower sensitivity to interest rate movements detracted from benchmark-relative returns. The overweight allocation to corporate credit also detracted year to date, but the allocation to structured U.S. agency mortgage-backed securities contributed positively to benchmark-relative performance.

Inflation Protection Fund

Fund	May	YTD
Inflation Protection Fund	+1.37%	-2.33%
IPF Benchmark <sup>ii</sup>	+2.37%	+0.59%
Difference (percentage points)	-1.00	-2.92

- During the month and year to date, the fund's overweight exposure to U.S. inflation-linked securities and related underweight exposure to U.K. inflation-linked securities detracted from benchmark-relative performance.
- The fund's allocation to the diversifying strategy of below-investment-grade, floating-rate bank loans added to benchmark-relative performance during the month, but detracted year to date.

Balanced Fund

Multiple Asset Fund

Fund	May	YTD
Multiple Asset Fund	+4.41%	-5.08%
MAF Benchmark <sup>iii</sup>	+3.49%	-5.19%
Difference (percentage points)	+0.92	+0.11

- During the month, the U.S. Equity Fund, International Equity Fund and Fixed Income Fund positively contributed to benchmark-relative performance, while the Inflation Protection Fund detracted from benchmark-relative performance.
- Year to date, the International Equity Fund and U.S. Equity Fund positively contributed to benchmark-relative performance, while the Fixed Income Fund and Inflation Protection Fund detracted from relative performance.

Social Values Choice Suite of Funds

Social Values Choice Bond Fund

Fund	May	YTD
Social Values Choice Bond Fund	+1.61%	+3.74%
Barclays U.S. Universal (ex MBS) Index	+1.17%	+4.51%
Difference (percentage points)	+0.44	-0.77

- The fund's overweight allocation to corporate bonds and mortgage-backed securities added to benchmark-relative performance during the month, but it detracted on a year-to-date basis.

Social Values Choice Equity Fund

Fund	May	YTD
Social Values Choice Equity Fund	+5.38%	-5.65%
SVCEF Benchmark <sup>iv</sup>	+5.14%	-5.89%
Difference (percentage points)	+0.24	+0.24

- The Social Values Choice Equity Fund is a passively managed fund designed so that it closely matches the fund benchmark, less fees and expenses. The fair market valuation policy (described here) positively affected benchmark-relative performance during the month and year to date.

U.S. Treasury Inflation Protection Fund

Fund	May	YTD
U.S. Treasury Inflation Protection Fund	+0.05%	+5.03%
Barclays U.S. Inflation Linked Bond Index	+0.25%	+5.16%
Difference (percentage points)	-0.20	-0.13

- The U.S. Treasury Inflation Protection Fund is a passively managed fund designed so that it closely matches the performance of the fund benchmark, less fees and expenses.
